CHAPTER II.

AN ACT IN ADDITION TO AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A STATE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE, PASSED AT THE JUNE SESSION, A. D. 1870.

SECTION

1. Vacancies in board of agriculture, how filled, and term of office.
2. Office room in state-house to be assigned board.
3. Board to act as commissioners on diseases of domestic animals, when.
4. Duties of secretary defined.
5. Distribution of seeds, plants, &c., by secretary.

SECTION

6. Selectmen and assessors to make inquiries and respond to secretary.
7. Secretary to give bond.
8. Salary of secretary.
9. Annual report, how printed and distributed.
10. Repealing clause—act takes effect on its passage.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

SECTION 1. The governor and council shall fill all vacancies that may occur in the board of agriculture, by death, resignation, or otherwise, for the term of three years, and in the same manner as is prescribed in the act to which this is an amendment.

Vacancies in board of agriculture, how filled—term of office.

SECT. 2. Suitable rooms shall be furnished and assigned in the state-house, which the board shall occupy for their business meetings, and use as a depository for their books, papers, models, grain, and other articles that may come into their possession. The same apartment shall be occupied by the secretary of the board.

Office room for board in state-house.

Board to act as commissioners on diseases of domestic animals.

Duties of secretary defined.

SECT. 3. In the absence of other statute provisions, the board shall act as commissioners on the diseases of domestic animals.

SECT. 4. The secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the board, which shall be open at all times to the inspection of the citizens of the state. He shall have the custody of all documents, books, or other property, which may be deposited in his office. He shall also keep on file all reports that may be made by agricultural organizations, and all correspondence pertaining to the business of husbandry, address circulars to societies and practical farmers in the state and elsewhere, with the view of eliciting information on the newest and most approved methods of culture of those products adapted to the soil and climate of the state; also on all subjects connected with forestry, stock-breeding, the dairy, and other matters having a beneficial bearing on the interest of agriculture. He shall encourage the formation of farmers' clubs, of agricultural and horticultural societies, secure and distribute such rare and valuable seeds, plants, shrubbery and trees, as it may be in his power to procure from all sources, as may be adapted to our climate and soils. He shall also encourage the importation of improved breeds of domestic animals, and other live stock, and the invention and improvement of labor-saving implements of husbandry, and diffuse information in relation to the same. He shall encourage such domestic industry and household arts as are calculated to promote the general thrift, wealth, and resources of the state. He shall also make arrangements for, give due public notice of, and, if possible, personally attend the farmers' meetings for the promotion of agricultural and horticultural interests, which the board may authorize to be held from time to time in the different counties of the state. The discussions at the various meetings shall be on such subjects as are of practical benefit in the localities where such meetings are held, and the secretary shall in the annual report of the board embody therein as much of said discussions as may have an important influence upon the farming interests of the state.

Distribution of seeds, plants, &c., by secretary.

SECT. 5. The seeds, plants, trees and shrubbery received by the secretary, shall, as far as practicable, be distributed equally throughout the state, and placed in the hands of those farmers and others who will agree to cultivate them properly, and return to the secretary's office a reasonable proportion of the products thereof, with a full statement of the mode of cultivation, and such other information as may be necessary to ascertain their value for general cultivation in the state. Information in regard to agriculture may be published by him from time to time in the newspapers of the state, provided it does not involve any expense to the state.

Selectmen and assessors to make inquiries, &c., and hand to secretary.

SECT. 6. The selectmen or assessors of the several towns and cities of the state are hereby required to make inquiries at the time of taking the inventory in April of each year, and prior to the first day of May following, to respond to interrogatories previously furnished by the secretary in regard to the results of agricultural investments and labor, and the prosperity of the farming population.

Secretary to give bond.

SECT. 7. The board shall take such bond from the secretary as shall be deemed adequate to secure the faithful performance of his duties.

Salary of secretary.

SECT. 8. The secretary of the board shall receive an annual salary of one thousand dollars, in compensation for services rendered by him in that office, to be paid quarterly from the state treasury, in the same manner as is provided by law for the payment of the salaries of state officers.

SECT. 9. The secretary shall cause to be printed not more than fifteen hundred copies of the annual report of the board, and shall cause them to be distributed one to each member of the several departments of the state government, one to the town clerk of each town in the state, one to each public library, a proper number to the agricultural college, and agricultural and horticultural societies and farmers' clubs in the state, and make such exchanges with other organizations as may be deemed expedient.

SECT. 10. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect upon its passage. [Approved July 3, 1872.]

Annual report, how printed and distributed.

Repealing clause — act to take effect upon its passage.

CHAPTER III.

AN ACT IN ADDITION TO AN ACT ENTITLED "AN ACT TO REGULATE THE MANUFACTURE AND SALE OF COMMERCIAL FERTILIZERS," PASSED AT THE JUNE SESSION, A. D. 1869.

SECTION

1. Label affixed to every package of fertilizers, what to show.
2. Manufacturer to file bond with state treasurer — condition of bond.
3. Penalty for selling, &c., before bond filed.

SECTION

4. Penalty for selling fertilizers without label specifying component parts.
5. Act not to apply to fertilizers on hand — repealing clause.
6. Act takes effect on its passage.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened.

SECTION 1. The printed label affixed to every barrel, bag, or package of commercial fertilizer, or fertilizers, manufactured, sold, or offered for sale in this state, shall specify in addition to the provisions of section one, chapter twenty-eight, of the laws passed at the June session, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, the date of its manufacture, and the percentage which it contains of the following constituents, to wit: of ammonia, of soluble phosphoric acid, of insoluble phosphoric acid, also the percentage of its other constituent parts. By the term soluble phosphoric acid, is meant such acid in any form or combination readily soluble in pure water, and by the term insoluble phosphoric acid is meant such acid in any form or combination which requires the action of acid upon it to become readily soluble in pure water.

Label affixed to each package
of fertilizers,

  - 2. Oath as to ratable polls, what and when made.

- SECTION
- 3. False swearing in either oath perjury.
  - 4. Representatives' certificates to show whether oaths taken.
  - 5. Repealing clause.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened :

Selectmen's oath as to legal voters, what and when made.      SECTION 1. The selectmen of every town or ward, at every meeting of the legal voters of the town or ward for the choice of state and county officers, representatives in congress, or electors of president and vice-president of the United States, shall, after the opening of the meeting and the reading of the warrant therefor, and before the transaction of any other business, take and subscribe on the back of the check-list to be used at such meeting the following oath, which may be taken before the clerk of such town or ward, or any justice of the peace or notary public, the blanks in the same being first properly filled :

We, the selectmen of the [town or ward] of —— do solemnly swear that according to our best knowledge, the within list contains the names of those persons only who are, by actual residence, legal voters in said —— . So help us God.

The clerk or magistrate before whom said oath is taken shall make on the back of said check-list a certificate thereof.

SECT. 2. The selectmen of every town and ward shall take and subscribe on the back of the check-list used at the annual meeting, at the time when they file the same with the clerk of such town or ward, the following oath, which may be taken before the clerk of such town or ward, or any justice of the peace or notary public, the blanks in the same being first properly filled :

Oath as to ratable polls, what and when made.

We, the selectmen of the [town or ward] of —— do solemnly swear that according to our best knowledge, the names of those persons only who were not legal voters at the last annual meeting, but were actual residents and ratable polls in said ——, are entered upon the back of the within list. So help us God.

The clerk or magistrate before whom said oath is taken shall make on the back of said check-list a certificate thereof.

SECT. 3. Any selectman who shall swear falsely in taking either of the oaths prescribed by this act shall be taken and deemed to be guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury and be liable to the punishment prescribed therefor.

False swearing in either oath, perjury.

SECT. 4. In making out the certificate of any representative from any town or ward, the clerk shall certify whether or not the foregoing oath prescribed by the second section of this act was taken and subscribed by the selectmen on the back of the check-list used at the annual meeting.

Representatives' certificates to show whether oaths taken.

SECT. 5. Sections one, two, and three of the act in relation to the check-list used at annual town meetings and the names of ratable polls on the back thereof, approved July 14, 1871, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed. SECTION 1. The board of assessors as now chosen and constituted in and for the city of Nashua, and as chosen annually hereafter, shall be, for the purposes of this act, a board of inspectors of the check-lists in the several wards in said city, and they shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of the duties of their office by the clerk of the board. Said inspectors shall choose a chairman from their own number, and the city councils in convention shall appoint a clerk who shall be, ex-officio, a member of the board of inspectors of check-lists, and he shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of the duties of his office by the chairman of the board. The clerk shall keep a record of the proceedings of said board in a book provided by the city for that purpose. Said clerk shall hold his office until his successor shall be appointed and qualified.

Assessors to be inspectors of check-lists, &c.

SECT. 2. Said inspectors shall prepare, revise, correct, and post up, in the manner the selectmen of towns are required to do, an alphabetical list of the legal voters in each ward; and for that purpose shall have access to any books or lists belonging to said city, or to any ward in said city, and shall have the assistance of any of the city or ward officers they may require, and they shall deliver an attested copy of the lists of voters so prepared and corrected to the clerks of the respective wards; and the said ward clerks shall use the lists of voters so prepared and corrected, and no others, at the elections in said wards. In preparing the lists of voters, said inspectors shall record the first or Christian name of each voter in full

Duties in preparing check-lists, &c.

but may use initial letters to designate the middle name or names of any voter; they shall also record against the name of each voter the name of street and number of dwelling, if numbered; if not numbered, then such other description as shall indicate, as nearly as possible, the residence of such voter.

Duties to hold sessions, &c.

SECT. 3. The said board of inspectors shall be in session at the city hall building, or such other place as they shall designate, for the purpose of revising and correcting the lists of voters, six days at least within six months next preceding the day of election, the last two sessions of said inspectors to be held within one week of said election, one of which shall be on the day of election, from nine o'clock A. M. to twelve o'clock M., and from two o'clock to five o'clock P. M., on each of said days; and any person may then and there appear and be heard with regard to his right to have his name put on the check-list and to vote, and said board of inspectors may require the oath of such persons so claiming the right to vote, and corroborating evidence, if not otherwise fully satisfied of his right to have his name placed on the check-list. They may prescribe such regulations, and require the aid of such police, as shall secure order and the right of each person to be heard; and there shall be no abridgment of the elective franchise, or other qualification required than those now prescribed by the laws of this state.

Duties in relation to ballots, and inserting names on check-lists, &c.

SECT. 4. All the ballots cast at each election in the several wards shall be preserved, and after they shall have been counted, the moderator shall deliver all the ballots given in to the clerk of the ward, and the clerk of each ward shall seal up said ballots, direct and deliver the same, together with the lists of voters used at such election, within one hour after the adjournment of such meeting, to the board of inspectors, who shall be in session to receive the same, and the board of inspectors shall sort and count the votes so returned, and the clerk of the board shall make a record of the whole number of ballots given in for each officer to be voted for in each ward, with the name of every person voted for, and the number of votes for each person; and said board of inspectors shall be in session from seven o'clock to eleven o'clock A. M., and from one o'clock to three o'clock P. M., on election days; and any person may then and there appear and be heard with regard to his right to have his name placed on the check-list and to vote: provided, however, that such parts only of sections three and four of this act as the board of inspectors shall deem necessary, shall apply to special elections.

Penalty for procuring name to be illegally placed on list.

SECT. 5. Any person procuring his name to be illegally placed on the check-list by a false representation or statement, upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding sixty days.

Penalty for altering check-lists, etc.

SECT. 6. If the moderator, selectmen, ward clerk, or any other person, shall alter any check-lists after the same shall have been delivered by the inspectors to the ward clerk, by adding any name or names thereto, or erasing any name or names therefrom, or in any way changing the lists, such officer or person so offending shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail, not exceeding six months: provided, however, that in case the name of any person has been omitted from the check-lists, and who the inspectors are satisfied is a legal voter, the inspectors shall certify the same to the moderator, who shall receive his vote, and the ward clerk shall check the name of such person so voting on the back of said certificate, and shall return the same to the inspectors with the check-list. The clerks of the several wards shall return the check-lists used at the last March election to the clerk of the board of inspectors as soon as he shall be appointed.

SECT. 7. The board of inspectors shall enter upon the back of the lists of voters used in each ward at the annual meeting for the election of representatives to the general court, the name of every male inhabitant of the age of twenty-one years and upward who were not legal voters, but were actual residents of the ward; and the certificates of election of representatives to the general court from the several wards shall be made out, certified, and signed by the clerk of the board of inspectors of check-lists; and the clerk of said board shall certify that the check-list of the ward was duly posted and used during the balloting on which such representatives were chosen, the number of ratable polls in such ward, and the number of voters upon the check-list as corrected on the day of such annual meeting. The clerk of each ward shall make out a fair and exact copy of the record of all votes given in at the annual meeting for the election of representatives to the general court, and shall certify upon said copy that the same is a true copy of said record, and shall seal said copy, and direct and deliver the same to the clerk of the board of inspectors of the check-lists, with a superscription upon the same expressing the purport thereof, within two days after such meeting.

Names of ratable polls — return of check-lists to inspectors.

SECT. 8. Any officer or other person neglecting or refusing to comply with the terms of this act, or offending against the provisions hereof, where punishment is not already provided by this act, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be paid for the use of the county of Hillsborough.

Penalty for violation of act.

SECT. 9. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Repealing clause.

SECT. 10. This act shall take effect upon its passage. [Approved July 3, 1872.]

Act takes effect on its passage.

constituted a corporation by the name of the Laconia Water Works; and by that name may be and hereby are capable in law to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended, in any courts of record, and in any other place whatever, and also to make, have and use a common seal; and also to ordain, establish and put in execution such by-laws, ordinances and regulations as to them shall appear necessary and convenient for the government of said corporation and the prudent management of its affairs, provided that such by-laws, ordinances and regulations shall in no wise be contrary to the laws and constitution of this state, and to choose such officers as the said corporation shall deem necessary and convenient.

Powers and duties.

SECT. 2. The said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to construct, manage, maintain and own water works, for the purpose of introducing an adequate supply of water into Laconia village, so-called, in the towns of Laconia and Gilford, for the use of the citizens of said village for extinguishing fires, and for such other purposes as may be required, and for that purpose may purchase and hold real estate not exceeding in value at the time when the same shall be so acquired, the sum of twenty thousand dollars, and erect, construct and maintain such dams, reservoirs and buildings as may be necessary for such water works, and dig ditches and break up ground in the highways and streets of said village, place and maintain pipes therein for conducting water, relay and change the same from time to time, due regard being paid to the safety of the citizens and the security of public travel; may contract with individuals and corporations for supplying them with water, and make such contracts, establish such tolls and charge such rents for the use of water as shall be deemed reasonable.

Land may be taken by county commissioners.

SECT. 3. If said corporation shall not be able to secure on satisfactory terms the necessary lands and rights of water for said water works, including the right to lay and maintain pipes when required, said corporation may apply to the county commissioners for the county of Belknap, to assess the damages to the owners of such lands or rights of water; and said commissioners, after notice to the parties interested and a hearing thereon, if it shall appear that any lands, right of water, or rights to lay and maintain pipes are required by said corporation for said water works, shall assess and award damages to the owner of such lands or rights adjudged to be required for the purpose of said water works, which assessment and award shall be in writing and filed in the office of the town clerk of said Laconia within ten days after the same is completed, and upon payment or tender to the owner of the sum so assessed, the rights so taken shall be vested in said corporation.

Right of appeal.

SECT. 4. The same right of appeal from such award shall exist as in the case of lands taken for highways by the action of said commissioners.

Capital stock limited.

SECT. 5. The capital stock of said corporation shall consist of a sum not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, to be divided into such number of shares as said corporation shall deem proper, each of which shall be entitled to one vote in all proceedings of said corporation.

Authorized to borrow money on bonds or notes, etc.

SECT. 6. Said corporation is authorized to borrow money to defray the expense of said works, not exceeding in all one-half the cost thereof, and to issue the notes, bonds or obligations of said corporation therefor, payable at such times and at such rates of interest not exceeding three and one-half per cent semi-annually, as they may determine, and may, if they deem expedient, secure such notes, bonds or obligations by a mortgage of all their estate, real and personal, which mortgage shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds for Belknap county.

SECT. 7. Said towns of Gilford and Laconia, or either of them, or the fire precinct wherein said water works may be located, at any meeting duly called for such purpose may, by a two-thirds vote of all the legal voters present and voting at said meeting, raise by tax or loan such sums of money as they shall deem expedient, not exceeding five per cent of the valuation thereof as made by the assessors for the year in which said meeting shall be holden, and appropriate the same to the purchase of shares of the capital stock of said water works, or in payment for water for fire purposes, or may by a like vote guarantee the payment of said bonds, or the interest thereon, upon such terms and conditions as they shall deem proper.

Towns, &c., authorized to take stock to limited amount.

SECT. 8. The five persons first mentioned in this act, or any three of them, may call a meeting of the members of said corporation as soon as may be, at such time and place as they may see fit, by giving personal notice to each of them, or by posting up a notice to that effect in two public places in said Laconia village, seven days previous to said meeting, at which meeting the members may determine upon the time when and the manner of calling the annual and all other meetings of said corporation.

First meeting, how called, its powers, etc.
